Other interesting Parallels

God	Jesus
"It is written: "'As surely as I live,' says the Lord, 'every knee will bow before me; every tongue will confess to God.'" Romans 14:11	"...that at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, in heaven and on earth and under the earth," Philipians 2:10
"...and he will be a sanctuary; but for both houses of Israel he will be a stone that causes men to stumble and a rock that makes them fall. And for the people of Jerusalem he will be a trap and a snare." Isaiah 8:14	"...and, "A stone that causes men to stumble and a rock that makes them fall." They stumble because they disobey the message--which is also what they were destined for." 1Peter 2:8
"I will open my mouth in parables, I will utter hidden things, things from of old--" Psalms 78:2	"So was fulfilled what was spoken through the prophet: "I will open my mouth in parables, I will utter things hidden since the creation of the world." Matthew 13:35

Thomas said to him, "Lord, we don't know where you are going, so how can we know the way?" Jesus answered, "I am the way and the truth and the life. No one comes to the Father except through me. If you really knew me, you would know my Father as well. From now on, you do know him and have seen him." Philip said, "Lord, show us the Father and that will be enough for us." Jesus answered: "Don't you know me, Philip, even after I have been among you such a long time? Anyone who has seen me has seen the Father. How can you say, 'Show us the Father'? Don't you believe that I am in the Father, and that the Father is in me? The words I say to you are not just my own. Rather, it is the Father, living in me, who is doing his work. Believe me when I say that I am in the Father and the Father is in me; or at least believe on the evidence of the miracles themselves. (John 14:5-11 NIV)

The 66 books of the Bible that we have today were written by about 40 different persons over more than a thousand years. When you study the Bible it becomes obvious that even though each writers style is unique, the underlining truths give a unifying single perspective. Even with all of our modern advances in science the Bible has stood the test of time, proven accurate both as a historical record and scientifically. It is important to know that you cannot take any one verse of the Bible and try to apply it in a way that is contrary to the rest of the Bible. This is why we have listed so many verses to get a whole view of scriptures concerning the deity of Jesus. If you really want to know what God is trying to say, then let the Bible interpret itself as you study the whole Bible and see what it says about all aspects of an issue.

We cannot fully comprehend the relationship between God the Father, Jesus the Messiah, and the Holy Spirit. It is not required that we understand how Jesus can be both fully God and fully man but it is clear from the volume of scripture that this is the case. The scriptures clearly state that there is only one God yet they also teach that Jesus is God with us. This does not mean that they are the same person or that they have equal positions. "Then the end will come, when he hands over the kingdom to God the Father after he has destroyed all dominion, authority and power. For he must reign until he has put all his enemies under his feet. The last enemy to be destroyed is death. For he "has put everything under his feet." [c] Now when it says that "everything" has been put under him, it is clear that this does not include God himself, who put everything under Christ. When he has done this, then the Son himself will be made subject to him who put everything under him, so that God may be all in all." 1 Corinthians 15:24-28 (NIV). Paul also writes "...the gospel of the glory of Christ, who is the image of God." 2 Corinthians 4:4 (NIV)

Don't make the mistake of thinking that if you need to understand all the mysteries of life before you can believe in God. "For now we see only a reflection as in a mirror; then we shall see face to face. Now I know in part; then I shall know fully, even as I am fully known." 1 Corinthians 13:12 (NIV). You can see the "proof" of God today in fulfilled prophecy and in changed lives. It may help to note that you will never find God or Jesus involved in a power struggle. They have it all figured out so you don't have to comprehend it... but do not deny the only one who can save you.

"For the Father loves the Son and shows him all he does. Yes, to your amazement he will show him even greater things than these. For just as the Father raises the dead and gives them life, even so the Son gives life to whom he is pleased to give it. Moreover, the Father judges no one, but has entrusted all judgment to the Son, that all may honor the Son just as they honor the Father. He who does not honor the Son does not honor the Father, who sent him. (John 5:20-23 NIV)

When we use a switch to turn on a light or turn a key to start a car we are not required to know the electronics or the mechanics in order to use these inventions. The scriptures reveal many simple truths with practical applications that are stated over and over that God does expect us to understand and follow but the first step is a relationship with your creator through His Son. Unfortunately many wars, religious factions and cults have started (with great harm to the name of Christianity) by people who claim to be "following God" but do not have a true relationship with Jesus. Watch out for false prophets who pick and choose which scriptures they manipulate out of context and get away from the basic truths of the good news.

Jesus Himself warned us against such deception...

Jesus answered: "Watch out that no one deceives you. For many will come in my name, claiming, 'I am the Christ,' and will deceive many. You will hear of wars and rumors of wars, but see to it that you are not alarmed. Such things must happen, but the end is still to come. Nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom. There will be famines and earthquakes in various places. All these are the beginning of birth pains. "Then you will be handed over to be persecuted and put to death, and you will be hated by all nations because of me. At that time many will turn away from the faith and will betray and hate each other, and many false prophets will appear and deceive many people. Because of the increase of wickedness, the love of most will grow cold, but he who stands firm to the end will be saved. And this gospel of the kingdom will be preached in the whole world as a testimony to all nations, and then the end will come. (Matthew 24:4-14 NIV)

The apostle John gives us concise warning:

"Who is the liar? It is whoever denies that Jesus is the Christ. Such a person is the antichrist—denying the Father and the Son. No one who denies the Son has the Father; whoever acknowledges the Son has the Father also. As for you, see that what you have heard from the beginning remains in you. If it does, you also will remain in the Son and in the Father." (1 John 2:22-24 New International Version).

And the apostle Paul also gives us strict warning:

For such men are false apostles, deceitful workmen, masquerading as apostles of Christ. And no wonder, for Satan himself masquerades as an angel of light. It is not surprising, then, if his servants masquerade as servants of righteousness. Their end will be what their actions deserve (2 Corinthians 11:13-15 NIV)

But even if we or an angel from heaven should preach a gospel other than the one we preached to you, let him be eternally condemned! As we have already said, so now I say again: If anybody is preaching to you a gospel other than what you accepted, let him be eternally condemned! (Galatians 1:8-9 NIV)

Beware of false doctrines, cults and anyone who tries to convince you not to worship Jesus even if they claim to promote the Bible and God (Jehovah Witness, Latter Day Saints, LDS Mormon's).
